Oakland Man Arrested in Costco Robbery Police looking for two additional suspects in incident

Danville Police have one suspect in custody and are seeking two others in connection with a Monday evening robbery at the Costco store on Fostoria Way.

According to Police Chief Steve Simpkins, at approximately 8:55 p.m. three suspects entered the store. One of the suspects, wearing a ski mask, walked to a glass display case, broke the glass with a hammer, and took items from the case. Store employees confronted the trio, tackling one and holding him on the ground. The suspect with the ski mask ran into the parking lot and got into a vehicle and fled. The third fled in an unknown direction.

The suspect detained by employees, identified as Kesean Edwards, 21, of Oakland, was taken into custody by Danville Police officers. Edwards was transported to the Martinez Detention Facility and booked on charges of robbery, conspiracy to commit robbery and burglary.

Description of two remaining suspects: African-american males, 20s, 5'10 – 6' tall, medium build. Suspect 1 wearing jeans, grey-green hoodie, mask and gloves. Suspect 2 wearing jeans and light blue hoodie.

Danville Police detectives are continuing to investigate the crime and locate the remaining two suspects. Any person with information on the incident is encouraged to contact the Danville Police Department at (925) 820-2144.
