

Cynda Grabel
She's Gone
Acrylic on Canvas
24" x 36"
$875.00

Painting from my heart, both from memories and from photos is my passion. I love the use of color and form to express myself and to release my ideas and feelings out into the world. I do not like to confine myself to one art form, but experiment with oils, acrylics, ceramics and photography. Art is essential to a civilized world and I hope my art brings enjoyment to others just as it helps me to live a richer life. This work was inspired Mark Rothko.