

Patti Samper
Picture Element, Yellow
Oil on Canvas
40" x 30"
$3,920.00

I observe personal and communal spaces. Our evolving relationship with technology and the environment. I use color as a catalyst for inter-connectivity while contemporaneously generating a new, often ambiguous visual.

Throughout my work, I continuously explore the beauty in the simplicity that lies within the layers of complexity.

This piece was inspired by the color theory work of Josef Albers.